

Q1. How do I apply to HNU?

A: ① Applicants must log in <http://gjy.hytc.edu.cn> to complete the online application. ② Register the account for the first time use, and log in the online application system with the user name and password after that.

Q2. Can the Chinese origins apply to HNU?

A: The Chinese origins can apply to HNU if the applicant has held the foreign passport for no less than 4 years on the condition of living in the citizenship residence continuously for 2 years at least.

Q3. Does HNU offer the pick-up service?

A: DUT offers the pick-up service for free during the registration time upon request.

Q4. Does HNU offer scholarship to international students?

A: HNU offers a variety of scholarship to international students, such as HNU International Students Presidential Scholarship, Excellent International Students Scholarship etc. Please refer to our website at <http://gjy.hytc.edu.cn>. for more details.

Q5. Can applicants apply for more than one scholarship program?

A: Yes. However, DUT reserves the right to award only one scholarship to each individual applicant.

Q6. How can I know the admission result?

A: The admission result will be announced by HNU in the end of July. The applicants can check the admission result on our website at <http://gjy.hytc.edu.cn>.

Q7. Is it convenient for Internet access?

A: International students can use internet after registration at HNU Internet Center.

Q8. Can I rent apartment off the campus?

A: NO. For safety and easy management, the university currently provides an apartment building for international students equipped with complete indoor facilities, so that students can study at ease.

Q9. Can I work during my study in China?

A: According to the Chinese laws and regulations, international students cannot work when study in China. But the international students can take internship or part time jobs on campus.

Q10. Can I obtain the credits at HNU?

A: Yes. DUT offers various credit programs to international students, and issues certification to you when you finish the study here. The credits can be obtained or not is determined by your host university. You can consult your host university for credit certification before you come to HNU.

Q11. How do I handle procedures on visa, residence extension and so on?

A: Please come to International Students Office to get the relevant forms and certifications before you handle these procedures, and then go to Huai'an Security Bureau to complete the procedures. You can go to the School of International Education for more details.